HOST YOUR OWN WATCH PARTY

If you cannot join us in person, we encourage you to host your own Watch Party. Below are some tips to consider when creating your own coordinated event. Think of it as a party; like gathering your friends and colleagues together to watch a football game or a presidential debate.

- Send out invitations
- Invite everyone in your office and/or your friends and family
- Follow up with a reminder phone call and/or a ‘day before’ email
- Provide a light lunch – or make it a pot luck
- Choose a common area to watch together; all you need is a computer, pad or smart TV
- Create an informal atmosphere to foster open discussions
- Encourage anyone who cannot attend your Watch Party to host one of their own
- Urge all your colleagues to become a TDIF Co-Host! Learn more.
